

Heather - Bio

Heather Matuszewski, a dancer since age two, was trained in Sydney Australia in classical ballet, jazz, tap, vocal and performance. Heather grew up competing in many individual and group competitions and also had success in acting, being featured on a national children's tv show, and being featured in many commercials. Heather started teaching at age 17 and went on to own and operate her own performing arts studio "Dance Xpress" for over a decade. Dance Xpress prospered and saw students perform professionally both interstate and overseas, with many of Heather's senior students working abroad in London, on cruise ships, and throughout America. She also worked professionally as a dancer and singer for Carnival cruise lines, and Australia's Tap Dogs, Heather also auditioned with success for the River Dance Australian tour in the late 90's. Heather is a passionate and experienced teacher, performer and choreographer and is excited about being a part of CDC.
