

Vivian Monroe - Bio

Miss Vivian has been dancing since the age of 3 and has been involved in many aspects of dance, choreography, theater, and acting over the years. Although she has a degree in Engineering and worked in International Sales, she was meant to be a performer: winning the title of Miss Lehigh Valley (a Miss America preliminary pageant), cheerleading for the Buffalo Bills NFL football team, and traveling the West Coast in a two-woman show called "Tap with Me". She has been teaching at CDC since 2004, bringing her love of Jazz, Tap, Ballet, Musical Theater and Zumba to students young and old. She remains an active member of The Sterling Playmakers community theater group and The Actor's Center of Washington DC. She loves to see Broadway shows and enjoys continuing her dance training by attending conventions and teacher classes whenever she can. Miss Vivian brings her organizational skills and positive energy to the Ashburn Studio.
